

BIRTHDAY REFLECTION- 15 April 2015

A timely reflection on life: Taking stock of my life, in particular, on this special day to thank and praise Almighty God for how far He has brought me, and looking forward in Hope and assurance, to where He is taking me and the Ministry.

REFLECTION: Jesus Christ gave up His life so I could have mine back. He died like I should die, so I could live like He lives. Not only did He please our Father in Heaven; but He received me as a bounty. Lord Jesus, you paid the ultimate price to get the redemptive job done.

THANKSGIVING: For this sacred act of Yours, Christ Jesus - the highest level of obedience worth emulating - I sincerely thank You and praise Your holy name. I thank our Heavenly Father, for this precious indescribable gift of Life that no amount of financial wealth could purchase. I thank You Father for the Works that You are doing through me. Thank you for counting me a worthy vessel. I thank and praise Your blessed name for being an enemy to my enemies and for opposing those who oppose me.

PRAYER: May my strength be by Your grace, may my life be continually ruled by Your word and above all, may my end glorify nothing less than Your holy name. Amen!

I also pray for all reading this and for every mouth that says "AMEN" to be blessed beyond their expectation, in Christ Jesus' name.
